SPEAKER TESTIMONIALS

"BSG secured Lorrie Thomas as a Keynote Speaker for our Annual Customer Appreciation Conference. Lorrie is energetic, engaging and clearly an expert in the web marketing field."

Our diverse customer base found Lorries Wild, Wild Web presentation to be most informative. Not only did she present at our main session, but she also took the time to meet with our customers individually, in smaller group sessions as well as attend our social events.

It was truly a pleasure to work with Lorrie and her staff prior to our event. She coordinated with us on an ongoing basis to ensure that the presentation would exceed our expectations.

I, as well as others from BSG, really enjoyed working with Lorrie and her team and would highly recommend her to any business."

Sharon Gallardo, Sr. Marketing Manager

"Lorrie Thomas is a strong communicator and an energetic speaker. She possesses a great talent for educating a non-technical audience about potentially complicated, technical topics. She's extremely professional and very easy to work with."

Victoria Backer, SVP, Member Services

United Fresh Produce Association

"Lorrie is an excellent speaker, and we highly recommend her. She is full of energy, good ideas, and a positive attitude. Behind her engaging presentation is a wealth of knowledge and experience that enables her to answer even the toughest follow-up questions with ease. Perhaps her best skill is her ability to communicate complex search engine optimization concepts to a wide variety of audiences. Everyone can benefit from the training she provides, from people with almost no technical experience to those who are experts in information technology. Hiring Lorrie was a wonderful investment for us, both in terms of the value she brought to our organization and in terms of the enthusiastic support that she continues to offer us."

Janet Niblock, Executive Director

George Mason University Office of Continuing Education

“Lorrie was a wonderful speaker to work with from the get-go. She partnered with us to come up with custom sessions specific to our attendees’ needs and prepared each presentation with case studies specific to our industry to educate and make the web marketing material relevant. When Lorrie emerged as a speaker candidate for a session scheduled at the same time as the one she was booked for, she quickly sent us a recommendation for another speaker – that’s professional speaker service!”

Lorrie had attendees attend our event specifically to attend her night school session and received rave reviews that included comments on how relevant and applicable her web marketing expert advice was. We received 100% excellent rating for Lorrie in our night school session, which is a very tough time slot in our program, since attendees have been in sessions all day. Lorrie Thomas is an engaging and educational speaker who added great value to our event. We will work with her in the future.”

Stephanie A. Fisher, CMP Education Director

“I asked Lorrie Thomas to provide a presentation to our sales team during our annual company meetings. The room of about 25 included media salespeople and at all levels of experience, along with members of the IT department and a few other departments who sat in. Some had only sold print. Some were brand new to media in general. Lorrie’s excitement for the medium was contagious. She invigorated & educated our team. Being able to provide real value to both serious geeks and online sales newbies all in the same presentation was a very tall order and she just ...nailed it! I am confident that her presentation will translate into higher sales numbers at our company. Lorrie takes the mystery out of online marketing. I would recommend Lorrie to any size organization or any company type without hesitation.”

Julie Tinney, VP, Sales and Marketing

Wells Publishing, Inc., San Diego, CA

Lorrie's expertise in web marketing is phenomenal! She takes the complicated technical world of web marketing and offers small businesses tools and tips that work with any budget! Lorrie was the keynote speaker at our June THINK BIG! event - her speaking talent inspired our female entrepreneurs and taught them so much. We at WEV, give Lorrie's vivacious personality and expertise our highest recommendation!”

Angel Cottrell, Director

"Lorrie, thank you so much for presenting at our seminar last month. All of our attendees raved about how your session, Internet Marketing for Tax Problem Resolution Practitioners, will help bring them more business than they could ever imagine!"

Lawrence M. Lawler, CPA, CTRS, National Director
American Society of Tax Problem Solvers

"Brilliant, creative, practical plus she has a lot of common-sense...these are just a few of the ways I would describe Lorrie Thomas. Lorrie's critiques and comments are the highlight of my program on "Effective Seminar Marketing." Panel discussions, class participation, one-to-one advising, extemporaneous presentations, networking luncheons...she does it all. I recommend her to you without any reservations!"
